Galilee to The Dead Sea

- If visiting in winter, pack warm clothes and an umbrella
- If visiting in summer bring lightweight clothing, sunscreen and a hat
- Universal travel adaptor
- Tour Voucher and a copy of your travel insurance policy, spare passport photos and a photocopy of your passport
- Good walking shoes for sightseeing in the old city of Jerusalem

Optional activities

Night Spectacular

If you have a free evening in Jerusalem you may wish to consider attending the city's famed 'Night Spectacular'. Each evening the walls of the Old Jerusalem Citadel serve as the stage for a sound and light show. Amidst the archaeological remains in the Citadel's courtyard and to the sound of original music, the story of Jerusalem is told through stunning visual and lighting displays. An adult ticket costs approximately $16. Tickets can be purchased online in advance or at the gate (subject to availability). Show times vary, but normally from 8pm in the summer and 7pm in the winter. Check the show website for exact timings.

Sea of Galilee boat trip

On some of our trips we offer a 2 hour boat trip on the Sea of Galilee. Often, boarding a wooden boat resembling those from ancient times you'll see gulls overhead and have time to take in the tranquil surrounds. It is here, upon the lake that Jesus walked on the water (John 6:19-21), calmed a storm (Matt. 8:23-26) and showed the disciples miraculous catches of fish (Luke 5:1-8; John 21:1-6). The boat trip is offered, dependent on time and number of persons. Should you be interested, please speak with your tour guide.

Kosher meals

If your tour includes dinner in Jerusalem, you are best to re-confirm this information with the hotel reception upon check in. Meals (breakfast and dinners) in the hotel are Kosher - meaning, that you will never find dairy products served with beef. Pork will not be served nor will various types of shellfish. The combinations may seem a little unusual though, there is always plenty of choice to provide a satisfying meal. Where lunch is not included within your itinerary (most days or all days) we suggest you budget $25-$30 per traveller, per day for an average meal.

Shopping in Israel

For those that enjoy shopping, when purchasing your souvenirs and bartering for goods set your budget, don't be swayed and remember the caveat – 'let the buyer beware.'

In the tourism industry it's common practice for commission to be offered in exchange for recommending particular shops or suppliers. This can become an issue when clients feel obliged to purchase. We do our best to avoid this by monitoring all shopping experiences offered.

All shopping experiences on your tour have been noted in the itinerary and they been selected based upon positive feedback from travellers. You are under no obligation to partake in a listed shopping experience and you are most welcome to wait inside or outside the premises.

Although we only visit reputable retailers, please note that we cannot explicitly guarantee the quality of their products. All purchases made whilst on holiday with us are at your own discretion. Please make sure that you are completely happy with your purchase. On The Go cannot be held responsible for any items that you buy if they fail to meet expectation, or any shipping arrangements. Proceed with caution.

Culture & dress requirements

Despite the inevitable ups and downs of travelling abroad, you will generally be shown great hospitality in Israel. Israel is generally a very relaxed country with a western-oriented outlook. Respect for religion is important to Israeli's and there are a few situations when this should be kept in mind.

Please visit www.onthegotours.com/Israel/Travel-tips-and-useful-info for local customs, currency, dress requirements, WiFi and other helpful information to prepare you for an enjoyable holiday.
